December 2013

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

It's that time of year again! Even though we are in Florida and won't have any snow, we try to make Bay Village really feel like Christmas with lots of parties and beautifully decked halls.

We are going to begin the month with our annual staff holiday party on Friday, Dec. 6. Please be aware that the sandwich shop will be open different hours today and the dining room will be closed for lunch so that our staff can enjoy the party.

On Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m., we welcome the Cantori Choir from Church of the Palms. They will present a Christmas Concert in the auditorium.

On Thursday, Dec. 19, we will hold the annual Christmas Gala. Over the past few years this has really become a very special event here! This year, we are featuring entertainment at multiple locations around campus and another spectacular buffet for you! You will receive an invitation soon with further details about this party!

On New Year's Eve, we will again have entertainment during dinner and encourage you to welcome 2014 with your floor family! If you are planning a party, let resident services know and we will DECORATE for you! Balloons, hats and streamers ... everything you need to welcome 2014 in style!

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL!

Transportation News!

Beginning in 2014, we will be changing the transportation schedule. For your convenience, we will ADD a DOCTORS' BUS DAY! We will now have service on MONDAYS, TUESDAYS AND THURSDAYS. The departure times will remain the same, 8:30 a.m., 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. This bus will take you anywhere between Bay Village and Fruitville Road for a very nominal fee. There is no "rule" that says you have to use that bus to go to a medical appointment! Just fill out a slip at the front desk.

*SHOPPING BUS CHANGES ARE AS FOLLOWS: The shopping bus will run on Tuesdays and Fridays with the same times. Walmart and Trader Joe's will be on Tuesdays and Beneva Village will be on Friday.

*On the first Friday of each month, the shopping bus that goes to Beneva Village will now go to Sarasota Pavilion. We will depart at 2:30 p.m. Sarasota Pavilion has Stein Mart, Panera Bread, Bed, Bath & Beyond, etc. We will stay for one hour.

St. Petersburg Trio Performs!

We are thrilled to welcome this group to the Bay Village stage for the very first time. The concert is on Saturday, Dec. 7, at 7:30 p.m.

The talented members of the St. Petersburg Trio met while attending the Rimsky-Korsakov Conservatory, one of the premier institutions in Russia for postgraduate education in music. Svetlana Nikova, dorma, has been the conductor of the Washington Balalaika Society orchestra since 2003, when she moved to Virginia. She arranges most of the music the orchestra plays, and is the principal arranger for the Trio. Vladimir Zakharevich, a native of Minsk, Belarus, plays the bayan, a member of the accordion family with rows of buttons rather than the more familiar piano keyboard. He has performed extensively in Europe.

Andrey Saveliev, who plays contrabass balalaika with the Trio, is considered the foremost soloist in America on prima balalaika. At conservatory he was exposed to the work of Russia's master composer and arranger for the balalaika, Alexander Shavlov, which beautifully showcases Shavlov's distinctive side. They will sell CDs following the show!

ALSO, Chef Chris has created a Russian Chef's Special tonight to get you in the mood for the concert!

Day Trips and Travel

- We have scheduled a trip to Punta Gorda to Fisherman's Village for dinner and the Christmas lights boat tour! Join us on Monday, Dec. 16, for that! The bus will depart at 3:30 p.m. and we will head to Harpoon Harry's for dinner and then the boat cruise.
- Join us for a day trip to Winter Park on Thursday, Dec. 12! First, enjoy an educational one-hour pontoon boat tour of the lakes there and then to Park Avenue for lunch. Then, take a guided tour of the Morse Museum of Art before heading back to Bay Village.
- We also have two excellent concerts at Van Wezel coming up and two more Broadway Musicals at the STRAZ Center this spring! Watch your mail for the fliers with further details of all these trips!

Wellness News~

This holiday season, let us all make an effort to stay fit and healthy. Celebrating the holidays comes with a lot of extra calories for a lot of us and also with being a little less active.

The weather is cooler and it calls for nice walks or bicycle rides on the premises or in the neighborhood. A walk in the mall is a wonderful way to get some extra steps in for the day.

Our pool is beautiful to look at, heated to a comfortable temperature and very beneficial when used. The Ping-Pong tables are open for anyone to use and playing is good exercise and fun. We have Women's and Men's Shuffleboard on a regular basis. Try a new class this season and bring a friend with you!

On Dec. 11, we are heading to the Ringling Bridge to walk the bridge and have breakfast afterwards.

Join in all the activities and live it up!!!

B.I.L.L. Series News

This month we have our last class in the "Greece and Turkey" series from The Teaching Company on Dec. 3. On Dec. 10, we welcome back The Cantori Choir from Church of the Palms at our usual "B.I.L.L." series time, 7:30 p.m. They will present their annual Christmas concert.

On Dec. 17, we welcome back speaker Tom Callaghan who was very well-received when he was here a few months ago and presented the "Living and Working in Saudi Arabia" talk. Tonight he will present, "The Torah, the Bible and the Koran" at 7:30 p.m.

Since the final two Tuesdays are Christmas and New Year's Eve, we will not have a B.I.L.L. class those nights. Beginning on Jan. 7, we will show the remaining lectures in the DVD series, "Before 1776: Life in the American Colonies."

The Ken Burns film THE WAR was purchased for the Bay Village library ... be sure and check out the award-winning documentary!

Our Holiday Bazaar, managed by our wonderful staff of volunteers, was very successful. Many people attended and we sold lots and lots of holiday items. If you didn't get a chance to get there, we have many of the same items in our gift shop. Please stop by and pick up some affordable, different holiday gifts. If you are new to Bay Village, or if you would like to try a new activity, please consider volunteering to help with the gift shop! Call Jane Pyle at 1263.

Rev. Dr. Chuck Moffett

There is a new "arms race" surrounding us today. You experienced it this past Thanksgiving. The race is between retailers competing for dollars in holiday sales, which used to begin on Black Friday, the day after Thanksgiving. Now at least eight major retailers were not only open on Thanksgiving, but even earlier in the day. Only two major retailers held the line by being closed on Thanksgiving Day. Kudos to them for honoring a national holiday, and also refusing to squeeze out extra dollars at the expense of their employees having to forfeit personal time.

Residents of Bay Village are blessed with two meaningful solutions to this "holiday arms race" without having to shop at any store, and without having to spend a penny!

The Religious Life Committee offers you free booklets which offer help and guidance in distressing times, which often are more acute in the holiday seasons. Appropriate for this season: "Grieving at Christmas: A Family Guide," "Feeling Depressed at Christmastide," "Using Good Memories to Help Heal Your Grief" and "Your First Christmas After a Loved One Dies." The display rack is in the Mail Room.

Our BV Library staff offers another free gift in the form of inspirational DVDs available for loan. Take time in this holiday season to reflect on the life given you by God. A few of the 24 new titles: "Eyes to See," "Harvest," "Long Road Home" and "What If." All these DVDs are available in the Religious Life Section of the Lois Parsons Library.

At Bay Village, there ARE some free alternatives to the current retailer "arms race." Enjoy!
