Employee of the Year Announced!

We are thrilled to report that Mr. Tom Wannop from our security team was named "Employee of the Year" at our recent staff appreciation luncheon. Tom was chosen by a committee of residents from the 12 "Employee of the Month" candidates from the last year.

What does the "Employee of the Year" receive? Tom gets $500 cash, a covered parking place for a year and a plaque. Nice going, Tom!

Barbara Griffin, from administration, was also honored for her 39 years of service to Bay Village! Barb has also announced that she is planning on retiring at the end of the year. Congratulations, Barb! Bay Village won't be the same without you!

GET OUT AND VOTE!!

We will have a shuttle bus (no charge) to the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 4! Come down any time between 3 and 5 p.m. and we are happy to take you to VOTE! We run a "continuous" shuttle, so just come to the resident entrance when you are ready.

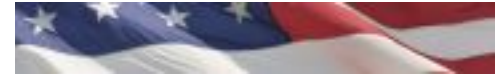

WELLNESS CORNER By Petra Mueller

A big thank you to all the volunteers who helped to keep as many exercise classes running as possible while I was recovering. Thank you to Betty Schattschneider and all the participants at the Splash class; Carol-Jane Guardino for teaching Tai Chi; Don Burgett and David Pyle for helping with the Hand Exercises. Thank you to the staff of Resident Services and Housekeeping for helping out.

You noticed I am back, but the schedule is still limited, even in November. Gradually I will add more classes to the schedule, as my condition improves.

On Nov. 8, I invite you to walk the Ringling Bridge with me and then go for breakfast at the Sand Dollar Restaurant on the Rooftop at Lido Key with a breathtaking view.

I see a lot of new residents here at Bay Village. Welcome to all and feel free to stop by and learn about our Wellness Program, the strength circuit or get your personal Fitness Program.

A Salute to Veterans Day

Nov. 11 is Veterans Day, a day to honor the heroic men and women who have served our country. It's an important day to be sure, but do you know the origins of this meaningful holiday?

In 1918, World War I was informally ended with an armistice in the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. One year later, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed the date Armistice Day to pay tribute to American veterans who had served in the war. In 1938, Congress declared Armistice Day a federal legal holiday.

Later on, World War II and the Korean War created millions more veterans to be honored. Since Armistice Day was associated with World War I, President Dwight Eisenhower signed legislation in 1954 changing the holiday's name to Veterans Day, a day dedicated to American veterans of all wars.

At Bay Village we will welcome speaker and veteran Tom Callaghan back to help us celebrate! We will have a continental breakfast in the dining room at 10 a.m. Veterans: we will have tables set up outside the dining room for any military memorabilia you would like to display. Everyone: wear your patriotic colors and come help us honor those who fought for our freedom!

Sarasota Academy of the Arts

Those of you who have lived at Bay Village for a long time will remember the Julie Rohr Dance Academy kids coming and performing. They haven't been here in years and we are happy to report that after some restructuring of their curriculum, Julie Rohr now runs her academy as a K-8 charter school, approved by the school board in 2012.

The advanced group of students are sure to delight you with a great performance on Wednesday, Nov. 5, at 10:30 a.m. You'll learn a little more about the school and its goals for its 300 students. The school is part of the district, which means they are fully funded and tuition-free for students, however, they rely on donations for "extras" like transportation, so we will be passing the hat at the end! Thanks for your support of this fantastic new school!

B.I.L.L. Series News

physics and astronomy at Northwestern University. The final class for this series Tuesday, Dec. 9.

ID Card INFO!!

Recently, two of our residents attempted to get a FLORIDA ID CARD, which is necessary if you have decided to give up your driver's license. DON'T bother going to the tax office near Bay Village OR the AAA location on Bee Ridge (both residents were told by the DMV that they could get ID cards at these places ~ not true). The place to go is the TERRACE BUILDING at 101 S. Washington Blvd. Bring two forms of PROOF of where you live (bank statement/voter's registration card, cable bill, etc.) and your old driver's license or passport.

From the Dining Services Director

It is that time of year when all floors book their Christmas luncheon floor party. All luncheons will be held in the main Dining Room. You may elect to have a Brunch either in the main Dining Room or out on the Pool Deck. Reservations for your floor luncheon will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis, so please call extension 2112.

Welcome Back: Weintraub Duo

It is our pleasure to welcome back Jason and Nancy Weintraub to Bay Village! They have performed here countless times. Jason, English Horn & Oboe, and Nancy, piano, are both graduates of the Eastman School of Music. Please join us for what is sure to be another fantastic performance by this duo!

A Sit Down Comic?

That's right folks, Ms. Sherry

Derrenberger describes herself as a "sit down comic!" She wanted to be a stand up comic but her multiple sclerosis wouldn't cooperate. Sherry realized that as she has gone through life, many events and situations are amusing to oneself and others. She noticed that she frequently got laughs when telling jokes or stories to groups or family or friends, so in her 60's she is starting 2 new careers. She is also an author and had her autobiography published recently, "Autobiography of a Nobody" (website for the book is www.sherder.com).

Join us in the auditorium on Thursday, Nov. 6, at 2:30 p.m. for some amusing stories with Sherry!

"Hit Me With A Hot Note" features Blues, Jazz, Broadway and other standards! We are expecting a packed house tonight, so arrive early for the best seats!

See you on Thursday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium for a concert you won't soon forget!

Rev. Dr. Chuck Moffett

Somewhere along the way, many folk have allowed the likes of Hallmark, Martha Stewart, and the social media culture to skew their world view into one of caring only for self. I confess that celebrating Thanksgiving Day in a food orgy for self gratification always has been "oxymoronic" to me. Where is the connection between giving thanks and getting all I can just for me?

How can we recover a true sense of thanks giving? Perhaps we begin by reflecting intentionally on the amazing grace we all have received from God Almighty, the source of the life we have. Perhaps by finding ways to reach out beyond our own circle and engage with those who are forgotten and who need a word, a hug, a smile, a gesture which says to them that they are a child of God.

My graduate school professor, Kenneth G. Phifer, speaks to this perspective in his "A Book of Uncommon Faith."

"There is a grandeur in my humanness, too often lost in my absorption with cheap pleasures and hollow happiness. There is a privilege in my relationships with others that I treat lightly, engrossed as I so often am in the emptiness of stroking my ego ... I am grateful for those times when I am caught up in something that flings me into contemplation of life's eternal issues: love and faith; hope and grace; the simple glory of being; and the complex meaning of eternity. I am thankful that it is hard to live in isolation. Life keeps breaking in on me. Glory be to God for a multitude of unexpected things: a smiling stranger, a friendly word, a rainbow, the fragrance of jasmine, the hush of prayers. Glory be that I cannot sink into self-centeredness without pangs of conscience, or flee into indifference without pricks of conscience....Thank you, Lord, for not leaving me alone."

A meaningful time of Giving Thanks to each of you!
