January 2015

A Brand-New Year

Welcome 2015! Time sure flies when you are having fun, doesn't it? Bay Village certainly is an active and friendly place to live and we've got lots of excitement planned for the coming year for you to get involved in.

We've got a new wellness "contest" beginning next month that involves "walking" across Florida! You'll see a big map of Florida in the wellness center and everyone who would like to participate will accumulate points for STAYING ACTIVE (both your mind and your body)! Further details about that will be on the flier you receive in your mailbox in a few weeks.

We also have a new travel company that would like to work with us; "All Inclusive Tours" will make a video presentation in the auditorium on Jan. 8 at 2:30 p.m. to tell us about their company. They have an exciting 5-night trip through Washington and Oregon by motor-coach that they think is perfect for our group, so you will learn more about that.

We have some top-notch entertainment booked already as well as some enriching educational opportunities from Sarasota Adult & Community Education.

Book Group News!

The Book Group will meet on Friday, Jan. 9 at 10 a.m. in the auditorium. Alice Blueglass, popular moderator of the "How Novel" classes, will review Orphan Train by Christina Baker Kline and will lead the discussion of the book. Between 1854 and 1929, so-called orphan trains ran regularly from the cities of the East Coast to the farmlands of the mid west, carrying thousands of abandoned children whose fates would be determined by luck or chance. Moving between contemporary Maine and Depression-era Minnesota, Orphan Train is a powerful tale of upheaval and resilience, second chances and unexpected friendship. A program not to be missed.

WELLNESS CORNER By Petra Mueller

We are starting the New Year off with a Wellness Presentation from Dr. Thomas Arne, Cardiologist here in Sarasota on Jan. 15 at 2 p.m.

Followed by a presentation by Alex Rotas, a special guest speaker from the United Kingdom. She is the author of 'Growing Old Competitively' photographs of Masters Athletes. You can hear her speak on Jan. 16 at 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium about: 'Disrupting ageing: challenging perceptions about older age through photography & speaking.'

She will spend a couple of days here at Bay Village and learn about our fabulous community of active people!!

On Jan. 29 at 11:30 a.m., I am offering a trip to St. Armands Circle. You can walk, shop and have lunch.

Line Dance will be back on the schedule in January on Wednesday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. Come and give it a try!!

Our Walk around Florida will start in the middle of February.

GREAT Concerts in January!

We've got some wonderful entertainment planned for you this month with some Bay Village "favorites" returning and some new performers.

We begin the month by welcoming back Katie Eagleson to the Bay Village stage. Everyone enjoyed Katie's "Great American Songbook" concert last year and this year, she has a totally different show planned. Katie is a jazz-style singer and will perform on Thursday, Jan. 8 at 7:30 p.m. All performances take place in the auditorium unless noted otherwise.

Also, we have The Lopez/Tabor Duo returning on Jan. 15 at 7:30 p.m.! Michelle Tabor, piano, and Alfonso Lopez, violin, perform for a full house each year and have different and unique musical selections for us at every performance. Mr. Lopez is concertmaster of the Venezuelan National Symphony and is one of the most prominent musicians in his country. Dr. Tabor holds a doctoral degree in piano performance. Enjoy!

The KATZ KLEZMER COMBO Performs!

This is the first time this group will perform for us, so please join us for some unique music as well as education on Thursday, Jan. 22 at 7:30 p.m. Through music and narration, the history of klezmer music will be presented from its Jewish origins in Eastern Europe to America and the klezmer-style music of "Fiddler on the Roof." This concert will run for almost two hours with a short intermission. Stanley Katz, the leader of the group, plays tenor saxophone and clarinet, and as a teen was the youngest member of the Albany, NY Musicians Union. He performed with many big band orchestras in the 1940s. Stan says he is fortunate to live in Sarasota as it is a "Mecca" for retired musicians, so the quality and authenticity of musicianship you will hear tonight is very high! Enjoy everyone!

B.I.L.L. Series News

Our next DVD series from the Teaching Company begins on Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. and is titled "The American Revolution." This is taught by Professor Allen C. Guelzo. Has there ever been a more unlikely war than the Revolution that won America its independence? Why did thirteen colonies, with nothing resembling a unified and trained army and no Navy to speak of believe that they could defeat the most powerful nation on the planet? Join us for this 12-week series and find out!

A reminder about our upcoming classes from Adult & Community Education: Bob Clementis will be back to teach another "Foreign Affairs" current events series beginning Monday, Jan. 19 from 10:30 to noon in the auditorium. Bill Crowe's iPad classes begin on Friday, Jan. 30 and will be for four weeks. He will hold a beginner class from 9 to 10:30 a.m. and an advanced class from 10:45 to noon. Space is LIMITED for that one, so sign up quickly if you want to join us! We've also added another class with David Tschanz, who was here to teach "The Crusades" in November. "Islamic Studies" will be held from 10:30 to noon and begins on Wednesday, Jan. 21 and is a 6-week course. This course will survey the diverse history of Islamic societies from the 7th to the 13th centuries. Topics David will cover include the pre-Islamic Middle East; Arabian society; Muhammad and the rise of the new religion; the expansion of Islam in Asia, Africa and Europe; the Caliphate of Baghdad; the various schools of Islamic philosophy and the problems of continuity and change. Also, Alice Blueglass will return to teach another "How Novel!" series beginning on Tuesday, Jan. 27. The books you will read will be listed on the flier you receive in your mailbox.

Chef's Corner

Hello everyone! Chef Chris here. Wow 2014 sure flew by. I hope everyone had a happy and healthy holiday season. We made many changes last year to our menu, some noticeable and some a little more subtle. As we move forward into 2015, we will continue to look at industry trends and resident suggestions to constantly keep our menu fresh, interesting, and resident-friendly. That's all for now, and, as always, your comments and suggestions are always welcome and are all taken to heart.

Chaplain's Corner

Rev. Dr. Chuck Moffett

"... Now You Know The Rest Of The Story." With those words, Paul Harvey, famed radio broadcaster, would offer little known facts behind well-known persons and events. In that light, I offer a "rest of the story" behind a famous drawing in hopes we might move into the new year with a perspective beyond empty resolutions.

Back in the 15th century, in a tiny village near Nuremberg, Germany, there lived a family with 18(!) children. Two of the brothers had a dream of being artists, but they knew their father's income could not support that dream.

The brothers made a pact by tossing a coin: the winner would go to art school - the loser would work for 4 years to support the other. After 4 years, the roles would be reversed. Albrecht Durer won the toss, while brother Albert went to work in the mines.

Young Albrecht's art works became prized purchases even before he finished his studies. When he returned after graduation, he announced to a family gathering: "And now, Albert, blessed brother of mine, it is your turn to pursue your dream, and I will take care of you."

Albert responded: "No, brother, I cannot go. It is too late for me. The bones in every finger have been smashed ... I suffer from arthritis. I cannot even hold a glass to return your toast ..."

Of the hundreds of Albrecht's works, most of us are familiar with only one: his painstaking drawing of his brother's abused hands, palms together, thin fingers stretched skyward. Albrecht names his drawing "Hands." Almost immediately, the world renamed his tribute of love: "The Praying Hands." When you see the drawing again, may it remind you as we yearn for a better world: NO ONE ... NO ONE ... EVER MAKES IT ALONE!"
