February 2016

The Osprey Trio features accomplished musicians, Kathryn Master (flute), Joyce Valentine (piano) and Christopher Schnell (cello). The trio loves performing chamber music of classic composers like Beethoven and Mozart, but also enjoy treating their audience to music by living composers that you may have never heard of, but are sure to enjoy.

Ms. Master holds a master's degree in flute performance from the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Ms. Valentine went to the Juilliard School, where she earned her bachelor's degree and also holds a master's degree in piano performance from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Mr. Schnell has been the assistant Principal Cellist for the Sarasota Orchestra and performs in many local venues, such as the Sarasota Opera. He attended Temple University.

They will perform in the auditorium on Thursday, February 18th, at 7:30 p.m.

Uncle Sam and Seniors

While Social Security income typically is not taxable, that doesn't apply in all cases, especially if you have other sources of income. To determine if you need to file, speak to your own financial advisor or tax professional. If you don't have one, the IRS, along with many community service groups, offers free tax help for seniors. Visit www.IRS.gov for more information.

HOUSEKEEPING NEWS

Spring is just around the corner! If you'd like some spring cleaning done in your apartment, please call Denise at ext. 2110 to schedule an appointment!

The SUNCOAST MUMMERS STRING BAND

It's been a couple of years since we've had this wonderfully upbeat and FUN group of people grace our stage. As a matter of fact, not only do they grace our stage, they fill the entire auditorium with string band music. They wear authentic Mummer's outfits from the "Mummers Parade" that marches down Broad Street each New Year's Day in Philadelphia (There are 15,000 marchers in the event!). If you don't know what the "Mummers Strut" is you'll find out at 7:30pm on Sunday, Feb. 28, and you will also learn a little bit about the extensive history of this unique event!

Salute the USO

Celebrate the organization with the mission of lifting the spirits of America's troops and their families. The USO's anniversary is Feb. 4.

RAINBOWS AND SHOWERS

RAINBOWS for our JANUARY entertainment! Wow! We really hit it out of the ballpark with some really talented entertainers!

15 year old prodigy, Noah Waddell (piano), received the longest standing ovation in Bay Village history! Yes, we've invited him back. If you missed it we've got some great folks on the calendar this month as well! JOIN US, WON'T YOU??

RAINBOWS for THE NEW BUS!

RAINBOWS for George Haas! Everyone asks where the gorgeous flowers in the resident services office come from. George has been bringing us at least one bouquet a week for a few years now- THANKS GEORGE!

Wellness Corner...by Petra Mueller

The gorgeous displays at the Orchid Show in Venice from last year still linger in my mind. I am excited to organize another trip to the Show this year. On Saturday, February 6th we are going to enjoy the displays again! You have a chance to buy a variety of orchids from multiple vendors that will be present.

Dr. Ronald White, local orthopedic doctor, is giving a presentation on Thursday, February 25th, at 4 pm. Come and learn about new procedures and ask your questions after the talk.

PARTY Bridge!

There's a reason why they call progressive bridge "Party Bridge." It's fun...and our group is looking for new members! Call Clarice Jardine if you want to play with a "pressure-free" (for the most part) group of card players every Monday evening!

We meet in the card room at 7:00 p.m.!!

B.I.L.L. NEWS~A Few Months of Russian History & Music!

Our current DVD series from the Teaching Company is "The History of Russia," Peter the Great to Gorbachev, and it is held every Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium.

Your B.I.L.L. committee has decided to break this long series into three parts. Part one begins with politics and culture on the eve of Peter the Great's efforts to transform his country; then, it looks at Peter and his reforms. Next, women's rule is examined with particular focus on Catherine the Great. Then, the Purgachev Uprising will be covered as well, as writer Nikolai Novikov.

Next, we consider Decembrist rebellion, in which nobles took arms against the state to bring about social and political reform. Part I of this series has ended.

Your instructor for this course is Dr.

Mark Steinberg, a professor of history at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and director of the Russian and East European Center.

He is the winner of a number of prestigious awards, including Yale University's Sarai Ribicoff Prize for Teaching. We hope you will make plans to join us for what should be a fascinating class!

Following each part of this course, we will show a lecture series about two great Russian composers, Tchaikovsky and Stravinsky. First, join us for 4 weeks of Stravinsky, which is taught by Robert Greenberg. The final class is on Tuesday, February 9, at 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium.

Part 2 of the "Russian History" series will begin on February 16th!

Sky Watch: Full Snow Moon

Look skyward in early February for the Snow Moon. Native American tribes named this month's full moon for the heavy snow that usually falls this time of year.

LET'S HEAD TO ORLANDO!

When we say "We're going to Orlando" everyone thinks "Disney" or "Sea World." Not this time! Orlando has some new attractions that we think our Bay Village group will really enjoy!!

That being said, join us on Wednesday, February 10th, as we head to the "Orlando Eye", "Madame Tussaud's Wax Museum" and the "Sea Life Aquarium!"

The "Eye" is a huge observation wheel (we'll be up 400 feet, and yes, it's air conditioned/handicapped accessible) and you'll be viewing the magic, wonder and beauty of Orlando from above.

The aquarium is separated into the oceans of the world (Caribbean, Indian, Atlantic, etc.) and even has a 360 degree underwater observation tunnel. It's a smaller aquarium, so it's easily visited in an hour or two.

Then, cozy up to celebrities, sports stars, icons in culture and history at the wax museum. If you've never been to a wax museum, you will be stunned at how realistic it is! Don't ask for any autographs though, you won't be successful.

There are new restaurants within walking distance of these attractions, so we'll fit in time for lunch as well. We will travel by motor coach and will announce the departure time and cost on the flyer you receive in your mailbox.

By the way, if you aren't particularly fond of heights, the observation wheel takes less than 30 minutes, so if you want to come on the trip and wait on terra firma until the group gets back, that's fine. We will adjust the cost of the trip for those who want to skip the wheel, just let us know when you sign up. There are gift shops and other shopping there as well.

Rev. Dr. Chuck Moffett

Regardless of your political affiliation, we all are tired of the political gridlock!

As persons of caring and compassion, confronted by the torment and toxic situations in our world today, we all crave for some direction to move us toward wholeness, justice, and peace. But how? By whom? The answer, I suggest is not in the "who", but in the "how."

John Buchanan - a long time friend, pastoral colleague, and editor of the Christian Century magazine - helped me articulate some of my feelings. In a recent editorial he shared a personal conversation he had with former Republican senator, John Danforth:

"What is missing in the current situation, Danforth said, is the virtue of putting the common good above personal gain...The churches are the one place in American culture where virtue can be taught...Religion keeps politics in proper perspective and teaches that political positions are not ultimate truth. Faith communities know that the greatest good and the deepest happiness is to give and not to get, and that personal gain is always secondary to the common good."

Food for thought as we evaluate our own priorities, and as we work through the virtues being displayed in the political gridlock at all levels. May our faith empower us to live by the primary virtue of serving others instead of ourselves.
