NICHOLS' NOTES

Last month I was monitoring the thermometer that showed how much was being collected for the employee appreciation gift. Again this year, the residents and families surprised me by the generosity shown to our employees. Each employee truly appreciates your contribution to this fund.

As we turn the page to 2019, it's time to look ahead to what is in store for this year:

- Bay Village will be working with SFCS architects in developing the schematic drawings from the conceptual ideas that were developed with master planning and memory care. I have heard a lot of positive comments from the residents about these plans. Hopefully, by the end of 2019 we will be able to go to permit for our various projects.
- I hope our new pool deck area is used this coming year for various dining opportunities. By the time you read this, the finishing touches on this new area will be just about completed. A group of us had our meal on the pool deck after the resident holiday party. It is a beautiful place to be.
- The touchtown app will be rolled out the first of the year. This will go hand-in-hand with the digital display boards and also provide a lot more information about Bay Village on your computers, tablets, and smartphones.
- In January, the point-of-sale program will be rolled out to all who use our dining facilities.

I will continue to have my campus updates and quarterly meetings throughout the year. I am looking forward to having a great 2019 here at Bay Village!

Movie News

Some of our movie lovers here suggested repeating a few of our favorite films with British actresses: both "Most Exotic..." movies, as well as "Quartet," which are on the calendar, but we thought everyone would enjoy seeing great-British-actress movies all month and cap it with our version of "High Tea!"

The newest one "Tea With The Dames" is a documentary of sorts and was released in September 2018.

Dame Maggie Smith, Dame Judi Dench, Dame Eileen Atkins, and Dame Joan Plowright are among the most celebrated actresses of our time. They are also longtime friends who hereby invite you to join them for a weekend in the country as they catch up with one another!

Join us on Monday, January 28th at 3:00 p.m. in the auditorium!

New Music New College

Are you ready to participate in something completely unique and even cathartic?

Then join us on Thursday, January 3rd, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium!

Join Professor Ron Silver from New College as he leads "Cornelius Cardew's The Great Learning- Paragraph 7"

Cornelius Cardew composed experimental works for each of the seven paragraphs of The Great Learning by Confucius (translated into English by Ezra Pound). Each piece is for different instrumentation. You are welcome to participate (no "talent" necessary according to Professor Silver) or you can come if you are curious about this modern composer (Cardew died in 1981) and this truly unique piece of music.

SEE YOU THERE!

"The Best Things in Life and Beyond!"

Come enjoy a musical evening on Thursday, January 10th in the auditorium with Katie Eagleson and listen to a sophisticated set of standards and surprises from the Great American Songbook and beyond. This show features a medley by one of the greatest lyricists of the American Songbook, Johnny Mercer. You'll also hear something by Mercer's protégé, Alan Bergman, and his wife and writing partner, Marilyn Bergman. As usual, there will be something in French and a little taste of jazz. A highlight of the show will be songs by the composers, Stephen Sondheim and Cole Porter. This show is sure to please anyone with an appreciation of well-crafted music and lyrics.

As one critic wrote, "Eagleson's voice is beautiful, but it's how she utilizes that beauty to communicate the meaning of the lyrics that makes her singing so memorable."

Katie will be joined by Lenny Pierro at the piano.

Katie quickly became a "Bay Village Favorite" about ten years ago and we have had her perform every year.

Katie will have CDs with her, and our accounting department prefers that you pay in cash or check rather than have us put it on your bill. Thank you for your understanding.

- Robert Spano, Music Director, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra
Russian Duo is an international project, born out of a love of traditional music and classical elegance. Oleg Kruglyakov, balalaika virtuoso, and Terry Boyarsky, masterful pianist, have teamed up for exuberant performances of soulful, passionate music. Their collaboration highlights the mysterious sounds of the balalaika underscored by the vast expressive range of the piano. Featuring vocals, their extensive repertoire draws from Russian folk music, romances, dances, classical music, gypsy melodies, bluegrass, ragtime, tango, film score and Soviet song.

"A TRIBUTE TO EUGENE PETERSON"

Author of The Message translation of the Bible.

(November 6, 1932 - October 22, 2018)

Credit where credit is due. I am indebted to Peter Marty, editor of Christian Century, for my edited comments which affirm the influence of Eugene Peterson in my biblical study, and my life as a follower of Jesus.

FIRST: the kind of person we are at the center of our lives determines everything else about us. The choices, commitments, and decisions we make stem from who we are from the inside out. Even if we worship politely and behave correctly, the nature of our lives will end up anemic and trivial if we move God to the margins.

SECOND: Never look for short-cuts when seeking to be the kind of person God wants us to be. God-chatter that sounds vaguely religious won't create intimacy with God.

THIRD: We must let go of the idea that the Christian life is a self-project. While our culture lures us into the importance of self, the life of faith is found only when we embrace community. We should pray that we might eventually get so fed-up with our own importance that we end up following the One who can help us think more generously about others than ourselves.

Eugene Peterson: pastor, poet, scholar, believer, and witness opened my life to insights in Scripture, and how those insights change who I am called to be as a member of God's Kingdom this very day.

Lessons for me as I face the new year....and hopefully for all of us.
